Dear Parents/Guardians,

The 2020-21 school year is rapidly approaching and we are looking forward to a productive partnership with you to ensure our students will achieve their highest potential. We recognize that in order to be successful in school, our students need support from both the home and school. As partners, we share responsibility for our children's success and want you to know that we will do our very best to carry out our responsibilities. We are looking forward to seeing our students on Tuesday, September 8, 2020. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us at (478) 472-7221 ext. 3001.
